  - b. Community Outreach
  - c. DEIAAJ
    - i. Attended Session 1 of "What About the Elephant in the Room?" led by Dr. Jeremiah J. Sims & the Rooted in Love Team, sponsored by the Cultivating an Ecosystem of Belonging (CEB); Part 1: IDEAA Explained and Navigating Common Misconceptions. It was a good informational session and discussion of IDEAA with Dr Sims and Dr. Daneshzadeh. Some supplemental resources were shared out, which I attached here- I am also planning to attend Part 2: Culturally-Sustaining Communication on 10.16 via Zoom, and encourage others to attend as well.

- ii. I recently attended a Healing Circle led by Brijit Aleman which was a very powerful and moving practice which allowed people to share their experiences, truths, and be supported in community. Dr. Erica Tom had students from her class attend, Dr. Brenda Flyswithawks, John JD Duran were also in attendance; there were likely 40-50 total SRJC individuals present between faculty, staff, and students. There is another Healing Circle planned for Wednesday October 30th, and I encourage all to attend.
- iii. I have reached out to previously interested parties to inquire about their interest in being the DEIAAJ Pillar Lead for Classified Senate. They have declined at this time, but indicated they may be interested in a future semester. I will continue the conversation to attempt to bring more diverse voices and perspectives to Classified Senate.
